

AMMON AND KING LAMONI

MABEL JONES GABBOTT

LYNN S. LUND

$\text{♩} = 112$

mf

This is a song a - bout Am - mon, Who tend - ed the flocks of the
This is a song a - bout Am - mon, Who stood in the court of the
This is a song a - bout Am - mon, A ser - vant of Je - sus, the king,

king,
Lord,

Who fright - ened the bad men with his cour - age And a
He said, "Do you know a - bout the Sav - ior? I can A proph - et with pow - er and with wis - dom Who could small stone that fit in a sling. The ser - vants ran off to the tell you of mar - vel - ous things." He told them that Je - sus, a teach men the Lord's ho - ly word. — This is a song a - bout court - yard, To tell King La - mo - ni the truth, How — ba - by, Would be born in far Beth - le - hem, Christ would Am - mon, Who loved and be - lieved in the Lord. King La -

Am - mon had saved the king's for - tune, Be - teach - mon us to and love all the one of his - oth - er, And mo - ni and all the one of his - oth - er, Be - cause of his faith and for his youth.

 one day would die and for all men.
 lieved and ac - cept - ed God's word.